The Marmalade Pantry unveils a new collection of baked mooncakes integrating both tradition and modernity into four distinctive flavours

This year's mooncakes are encased within a classic ruby red bag made from PU leather and lined with luxurious red suede. It also doubles up as a chic everyday bag for the ladies. The Marmalade Pantry's signature olive branches grace the bag in the form of gold prints on elegant cutouts, making the bag stand out for its unique see-through design.

Made from a single piece of material with no stitching involved, the bag can be stored flat when not in use.
